Subject: Vacation

Hi Mike,

I'm going on vacation in the morning. We'll be 1) (stay) in a big hotel in Crete for a week. It will take a few hours to get there as we'll be 2) (travel) by car and by ferry. Dad says it's as fast as going by plane, but I don't believe him! Still, by this time tomorrow afternoon we'll have 3) (arrive) and we'll be 4) (swim) in the hotel pool. Generally, I would rather have an active vacation, but mom and dad prefer to relax. I expect they will be 5) (sit) by the pool while I'm swimming!

Luckily for me there are some watersports on the beach. I think windsurfing will be more fun than sailing, don't you? Hopefully by the end of the week I will have 6) (learn) how to windsurf really well. That would be great! It will 7) (be) the best vacation I've ever had. I'll 8) (send) you a postcard!

Bye for now,

Josh

Planeación de Vacaciones:

Realiza una exposición puede ser en cartelera o medio digital sobre una situación concreta sobre un evento futuro utilizando el Future Simple para narrar lo que sucederá, luego la expondrá en clase y el docente le realizará de manera oral 5 preguntas sobre las acciones mencionadas en la exposición.

Example:

My Future Trip to Europe

In the future, I have exciting plans to travel to Europe. First, I will take a plane from my hometown to Paris, the beautiful capital of France. When I arrive, I will visit the Eiffel Tower and take a boat ride on the Seine River. Then, I will travel by train to Italy to explore the charming streets of Rome. I will visit the Colosseum and taste the delicious Italian food.

After Italy, I will continue my journey to Spain. In Barcelona, I will enjoy the unique architecture of Antoni Gaudi and sunbathe on the beautiful beaches of the Costa Brava. Then, I will take a flight to London, where I will visit Buckingham Palace and stroll through the famous Hyde Park.

Finally, I will return home with many amazing photos and memories of my trip through Europe. I am excited for all the adventures that await me on this exciting trip. The future looks bright and exciting!

Entrega del plan de mejora, sus actividades y sustentaciones el día exposición del cartel en la clase, 3 de mayo 2026.
